- Sporting Events:
 - Varsity Football vs. Lexington - AWAY @ 7:00

Sporting Results:

- The Girls Varsity Golf season came to an end Wednesday at the Eastern District Tournament, held on the challenging Cambridge Country Club Golf Course. With eight teams competing for a spot at the state tournament, the competition was tough from start to finish. The Lady Knights battled throughout the day and finished 4th with a team score of 399! Ridgewood claimed the district championship after leading for much of the day and finishing with an impressive team score of 337. Leading the way for the Knights was Sophie Robb, who carded a 94 with 1 birdie and 2 pars. Aubrey Burchfield had her putting game on fire, finishing with a 96 and an outstanding 7 pars! Mattie Shankel followed with a 97 and 5 pars, while Payton Hudson finished with a 112 and Zoe Walter rounded out the team with a 116. What a season it has been for these Lady Knights! From an undefeated regular season to earning a spot in the district tournament, this team continued to compete, improve, and battle together all season long. A huge congratulations to our golfers on an incredible season, and a special thank you to our lone senior, Payton Hudson, for everything she has contributed to the Lady Knights golf program. We are so proud of this team and all they accomplished!
